MURFREESBORO, Tenn., May 20, 2009 – Bill Rudolph, Vice President of Sales at Store Opening Solutions, completed the 113th Boston Marathon in four hours and fifty-eight minutes. This is the thirteenth year that Rudolph has participated in this annual event. “The Boston Marathon is a test of endurance that requires training throughout the year,” says Rudolph.

“As Bill trains for his next Boston Marathon, he also enjoys going the extra mile for our customers,” says Chuck Cline, President of Store Opening Solutions. “Bill is more of a business consultant to our customers than a salesman, he brings 33 years of retail experience which he uses to simplify the process of new store openings, remodels and relocations.”
